Know all men by these Presents, that I Ezra Rice of Holden in the County of Worcester, and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, formerly a private Soldier in the fifteenth Massachusetts Regiment commanded by Col. Timothy Bigelow. In consideration of the sum of fifty dollars to me in hand paid by Jonas Cowden of Rutland in said County, Gentlemen, I do hereby assign, relinquish and quit claim to the said Jonas Cowden his heirs and assigns all the right title and interest and estate, to which I am entitled by virtue of my services in the Army of the Revolutionary War. And I do hereby request the Land agent of said Commonwealth to make and execute a deed accordingly of the two hundred acres of Land granted by the Legislature of said Commonwealth, pursuant to resolves passed the 27. day of March last.

Dated at Holden this 13th day of July 1833
